

Childhood, Youth and Emotions in Modern History

November 29 to December 1, 2012

Location:

Max Planck Institute for Human Development
(large conference room)
Lentzeallee 94
14195 Berlin

Info and Registration: Christina Becher, sekrevert@mpib-berlin.mpg.de

Thursday, November 29

Registration

9:00 – 10:00

Foyer

Opening

10:00 – 10:30

Ute Frevert (MPI for Human Development)

Large conference room

Juliane Brauer und Stephanie Olsen
(MPI for Human Development)

Panel 1:

Schools, Space and Discipline

10:30 – 12:00

Chair: Ning de Coninck - Smith (University of Aarhus)

Large conference room

Jane Hamlett (Royal Holloway, University of London):

„The Moral Discipline of Common Life?“ Space and Relationships in Dormitories for Public School Boys in South-East England, 1845-1918.

Roy Kozlowsky (Northeastern University):

The Architecture of Emotion.

Josephine Hoegaerts (University of Leuven):

Fatherly Pride, Filial Love and Repressed Anger.

Lunch

12:00 – 13:00

Cafeteria

Panel 2:

Media and Emotional Knowledge Acquisition

13:00 – 15:00

Chair: Juliane Brauer (MPI for Human Development)

Large conference room

Matthew Eddy (Durham University):

Learning to „See“ the Order of Experience during the Scottish Enlightenment.

Diane Bjorklund (Illinois State University):

„Sad, Mad and Scared:“ Lessons about Grief in American Picture
Books during the Second Half of the Twentieth Century.

Harald Salomon (Humboldt University):

“Children in the Wind:” Representations of Childhood in the Media
Culture of 1930s Japan.

Manuela Beyer (Freie Universität):

“Listen to Your Heart:” Historical Developments in the Advice on Emotions in a German Youth Magazine.

Coffee Break

15:00 – 15:30

Foyer

Panel 3:

Religion, Emotion and Children

15:30 – 17:00

Chair: Colin Heywood (The University of Nottingham)

Large conference room

Hugh Morrison (University of Otago):

„Torch Bearers in the Cause of Christ and Humanity“: Religion and „Growing Up“ in British Settler Societies, New Zealand and Canada 1890s to 1930s.

Susan Whitney (Carleton University):

Emotion in the Remaking of French Young Workers: Rereading the Jeunesse Ouvrière Chrétienne and the Jeunesse Ouvrière Chrétienne Féminine, 1927-1937.

Mary Clare Martin (University of Greenwich):

Children, Youth and Religion in Nineteenth-century Britain.

Keynote

17:15 – 18:45

Large conference room

Peter Stearns (George Mason University):

Obedience and Emotion: A Challenge in the Emotional History of Childhood.

Introduction: Stephanie Olsen; Chair: Juliane Brauer

Reception

18:45 – 20:15

Foyer

Friday, November 30

Panel 4:

The Nation and its Exclusions

10:00 – 12:00

Chair: Benno Gammerl (MPI for Human Development)

Large conference room

Marcelo Caruso (Humboldt University):

Patriotic and Republican Sentiments: Educating Children's Emotions in Early Independent Latin America.

Susan Miller (Rutgers University, Camden):

Bloodties and Lifelines.

Elena Tabacchi (University of Florence):

Shaping the Good Citizen: Schoolbooks and National Education in Fin-de-siècle Italy.

Katharina Rowold (London Metropolitan University):

Johanna Haarer and Frederic Truby King; or When is a Baby Care Manual an Instrument of National Socialism?

Lunch

12:00 – 13:00

Cafeteria

Panel 5:

Emotional Education in Colonial Settings

13:00 – 15:00

Chair: Margrit Pernau (MPI for Human Development, Berlin)

Large conference room

Swapna Banerjee, (Brooklyn College, CUNY):

Exploring Emotional History: Everyday Practices of Fathers and Children in Colonial India.

Karen Vallgård (University of Copenhagen):

The Ambiguous Politics of Love for Colonized Children: Danish Missionaries in Late Colonial South India.

Jack Lord (SOAS, University of London):

The Intellectual and Emotional History of Children in Colonial Africa:
Fear and Security in the Gold Coast.

Kristine Alexander (University of Saskatchewan):

"The Mission of Happifying:" Cheerfulness and Colonialism in the History of the Girl Guides.

Coffee Break

15:00 – 15:30

Foyer

Panel 6:

Adolescence, Medicine and the Body

15:30 – 17:30

Chair: Rainer Silbereisen (Friedrich Schiller University, Jena)

Large conference room

Michaela Riediger (MPI for Human Development Berlin):

Emotional Experiences in Adolescence: A View from Contemporary Developmental Psychology.

Lutz Sauerteig (Durham University):

The Emotional Turmoil of Puberty around 1900.

Beth Linker (University of Pennsylvania):

Brace Yourself: Scoliosis Treatment and the Inner Lives of Adolescent
Girls in 20th-century America.

Ishita Pande (Queen's University):

Sexology, the Education of Desire and the Conduct of Childhood in Late Colonial India.

Saturday, December 1

Coffee

9:00 – 9:30

Panel 6:

Policing, Child Welfare and Child Observation

9:30 – 11:30

Chair: Bettina Hitzer (MPI for Human Development)

Large conference room

Tamara Myers (University of British Columbia):

Happy or Dead: Safety and Fear in Postwar Policing of Childhood.

Kaisa Vehkalati (University of Turku):

Policing Emotions: Youth, Gender and Delinquency in Finland,
1920-1965

Christine von Oertzen (MPI for the History of Science):

Emotions Emerging: Millicent Shinn's Observations in Early
Childhood Development, 1890-1910.

Anne Katrine Gjerløff (University of Aarhus):

„Today Ruth Was Happy:" Diaries of Childhood Development and Emotions.

Round Table

11:30 – 13:00

Chair: Stephanie Olsen (MPI for Human Development)

Large conference room

Colin Heywood, Rainer Silbereisen, Ute Frevert,
Peter Stearns